

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C.,

February 3

, 1887

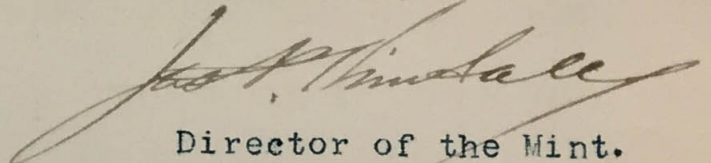

Sir:

Enclosed herewith please find returned statement of "assay coins for 1886," which you will observe is not "similar" to the one on page 6 of the printed "Proceedings" of the Assay Commission of 1885, but the identical statement itself, readily seen to have been a summary of coins reserved during the calendar year 1885, a period prior to that mentioned in my two letters of January 19 and February 1.

It may be well to repeat that a statement is desired (by pieces and value) of the gold and silver coins to be produced at the meeting of the Assay Commission next week as of the coinage executed by the Mint at Philadelphia during the calendar year 1886

As but few days remain, this matter should have the earliest attention.

Very respectfully,

Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia.
